AFP Greater Cincinnati Represented at ICON 2024

The top fundraising professionals in the world converged on Toronto earlier this month to participate in AFP Global's annual ICON conference. Representing AFP Greater Cincinnati Chapter at ICON were President Amanda Jenkins, President-Elect Lynn Smith, Immediate Past President Adrienne Taylor, and more than ten other chapter members.

"Diversity took center stage, sparking rich and insightful discussions... These valuable interactions have inspired some ideas that I'm excited to bring back to our chapter."

-Amanda Jenkins

"Not only did I get deep dives in sessions that will support my day-to-day work in fundraising, I also have a deeper understanding of the AFP Global network that will support me as I work to strengthen and grow our local chapter" - Lynn Smith

AFP Greater Cincinnati Chapter is excited to announce that we now provide affordable & professional consulting for our local nonprofit organizations who are looking to increase their fundraising potential!

AFP MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

"Being part of AFP's affinity groups and having men and women that look like me all over the United States chiming in, was very uplifting. It helps me feel like I'm part of a community, part of a team, that is mission driven."

Quinton Jefferson
Research and Grants Administrator
Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra

"I am incredibly grateful for the opportunities and growth that the CFRE certification has afforded me in my fundraising career. It has not only validated my expertise but also inspired me to strive for even greater heights in my efforts to make a positive difference in this world."
