Letter from the President

I can't believe that we're already half way through the year!

Our AFP chapter leadership has been hard at work to provide fun and educational programs for our members. That old saying that "time flies when you're having fun" really is true; however, as we begin to slow down a little bit during the lazy days of summer (beach vacation anyone?), summertime is also a great time to reassess goals for the rest of year and recharge.

We still have six more months of incredible programming, events and benefits for AFP members to plug into. In this newsletter alone, you'll find reading suggestions for when you're basking by the pool, opportunities to plug into additional professional development trainings, both with AFP and through partners organizations, and the chance to nominate a philanthropic leader in our community.

I am so excited about what's to come in the latter half of this year, as we continue to grow our membership base (see below for an exciting announcement), celebrate National Philanthropy Day, and welcome another class of graduates through the New Faces of Fundraising program...it's going to be great.

Looking forward to the next six months!

Happy summer,
Chris Martin

Your 2016 Summer Reading List

Summer is a great time to catch up on your reading while enjoying a little R&R by the pool, or even the beach. And while a crime novel or a romantic comedy are always fun get aways, here are a few great nonfiction reads to keep you in-the-know.

The Networked Nonprofit
by Beth Kanter, Allison Fine, and Randi Zuckerberg
Dives into new ways for nonprofits to operate in our increasingly connected world.

The Charity Case
by Dan Pallota
A leadership movement transforming the way the public thinks about giving.

Forces for Good: The Six Practices of High-Impact Nonprofits
by Leslie R. Crutchfield and Heather McLeod Grant
Case studies on a dozen nonprofit organizations that have seen tremendous levels of impact.

Switch
by Chip and Dan Heath
How to make lasting change in our companies and communities.
This makes a great group "book study"!

Full of Heart: My Story of Survival Strength and Spirit
by J.R. Martinez
The inspiring memoir of Private J.R. Martinez and his heroic journey out of tragedy.
Read this to prepare for our 2016 National Philanthropy Day luncheon keynote speaker!

Have a interesting or compelling summertime read that you would like to share with fellow AFP members? Be sure to connect with us on social media through the AFP Cincinnati Facebook, Linkedin or Twitter pages. Happy reading!

Sharpen Your Skill Set
The two-day Learning Institute will feature gatherings organized by organization type and affinity group, learning sessions for those new to grantmaking and deep dive breakouts for seasoned staff.

Vu Le, executive director of Rainier Valley Corps and author of the popular blog, Nonprofit with Balls (think juggling) will keynote the Institute, highlighted by the annual Philanthropy Awards lunch and plenty of networking at the 2016 annual gathering of Ohio philanthropy.

CFRE Review Course

AFP's revised CFRE Review Course offers development professionals an opportunity to review the main components of a complete fundraising program and prepare for the CFRE exam. It is a two-day, intensive program that provides an overview of skills, techniques, and program components including donor research, stewardship, marketing, planned giving and volunteer management (among others!). The course also provides an extensive look at sample questions from the CFRE exam and an overview of test-taking strategies.

National Philanthropy Day
Tuesday, November 15, 2016
Duke Energy Convention Center

The National Philanthropy Day Luncheon is our annual, signature event at which people representing businesses, nonprofits, philanthropists and volunteers come together to celebrate our vibrant philanthropic community. Each day, generous benefactors and volunteers make a difference to people across a spectrum of nonprofit organizations from the arts to education to social services and everything in between.

This year, we are excited to announce J.R. Martinez as keynote speaker. J.R. Martinez is an actor, best-selling author, motivational speaker, and U.S. Army veteran. Read more about Martinez here. We are also proud to announce Dean Gregory, VP, Montgomery Inn as our 2016 Honorary Chair.

During the event registration process, nonprofit organizations can submit the names of Honorees - donors, volunteers and special friends who have made a truly exceptional impact in our region. All Honorees will be listed in the NPD program. Organizations and individuals also are encouraged to submit nominations for the community awards listed below.

We hope to see you there!
